Brown Legal Services Partners with CaseMax Case Management System to Support Virginia, Maryland, DC and Mississippi Operations

Brown Legal Services, LLC, newly established by a 20-year industry veteran, chooses a case management system that will grow with her success

[October 20, 2022 | Overland Park, KS] CaseMax today announced a partnership with Brown Legal Services, LLC, of Virginia. BLS is a woman-owned law firm whose Founder, Kristine Brown, has over 20 years of mortgage default industry experience. As a long-standing leader in the industry, when Kristine established her own firm, she quickly recognized the efficiencies partnering with CaseMax brought to the firm's operations.

"This partnership is another example of the myriad of benefits an all-inclusive turnkey case management can offer," says Mike Zevitz, President of CaseMax. "CaseMax can support firms like BLS by providing not only a proven technology framework but the capabilities to scale for future growth right from the start."

"A lot of consideration went into choosing the right case management system when establishing my firm. CaseMax checked all the boxes for our needs, and then some," says Kristine Brown, Founder and Owner of Brown Legal Services. "The implementation was fairly seamless, and the trainers were extremely professional and effective. I am very pleased with my decision to partner with CaseMax."

The CaseMax system is a scalable platform designed to match the growth and expansion of any law firm. With countless direct integrations and over 40 third-party integrations, CaseMaxters save time and money while enhancing accuracy and overall user experience.
