Barsh and Cohen Chooses CaseMax Case Management System to Support Massachusetts Operations

Barsh and Cohen, a boutique Boston-based law firm, partners with CaseMax for agility and scalability within case management system

[May 3, 2021 | Overland Park, KS] CaseMax today announced a partnership with Barsh and Cohen, P.C., of Massachusetts. Barsh and Cohen, a boutique law firm offering the same qualified experience found at a larger firm specializing in creditor's rights and lender representation, expects to go live with CaseMax in July. Implementing a system that is as easily scalable as CaseMax allows the firm to efficiently respond to market fluctuations in a compliant manner.

"We are excited to partner with Barsh and Cohen on implementing CaseMax, providing an integral technology to keep them ready to respond to their clients' needs," says Mike Zevitz, President of CaseMax.

"Our mission has been the same for two generations. We develop personal, long standing relationships with our clients through dedicated support, the highest level of responsiveness, with efficient and professional legal services at a reasonable cost. Partnering with CaseMax allows us to use technology to assist our firm in being on the cutting-edge of this type of legal representation," says Neil S. Cohen, Esq, the firm's President.

CaseMax is a scalable platform designed to grow with a law firm's default servicing practice and beyond, including unsecured collections, estate planning, immigration and specialty areas like liquor licensing. As Barsh and Cohen continues to expand, CaseMax will match their growth and meet their needs through its offering of more than 40 available integrations, resulting in cost reduction and streamlined efficiencies.
