Hutchens Law Firm Expands CaseMax Case Management System to Support South Carolina Operations

Hutchens Law Firm currently uses CaseMax in North Carolina and is setting up South Carolina to go live in 2021

[October 21, 2020 | Overland Park, KS] CaseMax today announced that on their one-year anniversary, Hutchens Law Firm is going live with an expansion of their CaseMax case management system into a second state. This expansion of their CaseMax system is a major move for Hutchens Law Firm on its mission to improve firm efficiency and productivity.

"Hutchens Law Firm joined the CaseMax family about a year ago with the initial implementation of the system in North Carolina. Since then, Hutchens Law Firm has experienced firsthand how CaseMax allows firms to get more done with fewer resources," says Mike Zevitz, President of CaseMax. "We look forward to growing our partnership with Hutchens Law Firm and continuing to provide technology that keeps them poised for their next steps."

"From day one of the process, we knew we were going to implement CaseMax across the footprint of our firm," says Hutch Hutchens, Partner at Hutchens Law Firm, "and our decision was solidified during the last few months as we've recognized the unique benefits of CaseMax like new features, enhanced processes, and transaction-based pricing structure."

Hutchens Law Firm initially implemented CaseMax in October 2019 and the conversion of their South Carolina office is scheduled for Q12021.
